

Health Provider Application

The Baltimore City Health Department is currently recruiting members for a local Maternal Mortality Review Team

State legislation passed in 2019 empowers local jurisdictions to convene local maternal mortality review teams to prevent maternal mortality. This team will collaborate with State and community partners to identify gaps in local systems, recommend strategies tailored to local needs, and work with community partners to implement those recommendations.

The Baltimore City MMR Team aims to:

- ▶ Understand local systems issues contributing to preventable maternal mortality
- ▶ Narrow racial disparities and promote racial equity in maternal health and the factors that contribute to it
- ▶ Develop evidence-based and locally relevant recommendations to prevent maternal mortality and promote maternal health
- ▶ Work with city agencies and community partners to implement recommendations, including changes within local systems and agencies

Baltimore City MMR Team Structure

- ▶ Comprised of health providers, prevention practitioners, community leaders and advocates, and individual community members from across the City
- ▶ Selected based on a combination of expertise, commitment, and the perspectives they represent
- ▶ Team members will serve in a volunteer capacity and will not receive compensation for their participation in the review process

Team Member Expectations

All team members agree to participate fully in the MMR by:

- ▶ Attending 2-hour monthly case review meetings beginning in early summer
- ▶ Providing perspective from their respective field and community
- ▶ Collaborating with all team members as well as community partners
- ▶ Respecting the expertise and perspective offered by each profession and agency represented
- ▶ Assisting in the development and implementation of evidence-based policies, practices, and programs
- ▶ Sharing recommendations of the team with their agency/organization
