

Unsafe sleep environments are much more dangerous for babies with respiratory symptoms

Respiratory symptoms include runny nose, decrease in appetite, coughing, sneezing, fever, and wheezing. If your baby has any of these, safe sleep is even more important for them.

Alone.

Back.

Crib.

Don't Smoke.

Stay Cool.

